

An orange overload: novice monks crammed into a pickup truck travelling along Thadeua road in Sisattanak district. Overloading a vehicle with too many passengers is dangerous and can cause serious accidents.

Villagers of Donekoi, in Sisattanak district replace the roof of the local primary school. The roof had not been replaced for 13 years and was in poor condition. The locals also cleaned the school grounds and did other maintenance.

Workers trim the flower garden at a roundabout on Khouvieng road last week, helping to beautify the city in the lead up to the ASEM Summit in November. Municipal authorities also have a long term strategy to promote the city as clean and green.

Lao Law and Consultancy Group (LLC) Representative Ms Siri Boutdakham (centre left) and her staff on Monday donated 9 computers, 3 printers and other equipment worth 40 million kip to Vice President of the People's Court of Vientiane, Mr Saengsouvanh Chanthalanouvoeng (centre right) and staff. The firm donated the equipment to help ensure effective communication and information technology standards and further increase the capability and capacity of the court, in a ceremony held at the People's Court in the capital.